

Asperger Adult Group Sydney North

An Asperger group for adults will start on Saturday the 13th of June 2009, from 2 PM to 3.30 PM

The aim of the group is to compare and learn from each other's experiences as Aspies living in a neurotypical world, under the guidance of Jeroen Decates, a clinical psychologist who has many years of experience in this area.
The group will be held at his clinic in Wahroonga.

The plan is for monthly Saturday afternoon sessions and attendance is only possible through contacting Jeroen beforehand.
